

INTRODUCTION TO SAILBOAT RACING

North East River Yacht Club - April 2, 2017, 1500 to 1700hrs
Learn the basics and how to get started in sailboat racing. It is easy, fun and no experience required. Bring your family and friends.

Meet Your Instructors

Rick and Kyle Hanson have a combined racing experience of over 65 years. Together they have competed in hundreds of sailboat races in everything from Lasers to Santacruz 52s. On their J80 Born2Run they competed in Key West Race Week and the J80 World Championship. On their J109 Rosalita they have competed in 2 NA championships and multiple NOOD regattas. Together they have won 3 Chesapeake Bay High Point trophies, with the most recent being the 2016 distance race trophy. They are currently gearing up for the 2017 Annapolis to Newport Race and Block Island Race Week.

The 2 hour clinic will cover topics like boat preparation, sail trim, racing instructions, racing rules, the start, race course and the basics of getting around the race course. Rick & Kyle will share stories and use various multi media tools to introduce you to the things you need to know to get started.

The course is open to all and is free. For more information visit www.neryc.com